

Application for Scholarship

16th Annual Symposium
Yosemite, California
November 19-21, 2010

Generous donors to the CCWR Scholarship Fund have made three scholarships available for 2010. The scholarship is intended to help defray expenses to eligible wildlife rehabilitators who would not otherwise be able to attend the symposium in Yosemite.

A scholarship consists of one conference registration (excluding luncheon) and a check for $100 for use as needed to help defray travel and hotel expenses. The check will be awarded upon registration at the symposium.

To apply for a scholarship, please supply the following information and mail to CCWR in an envelope postmarked no later than July 15, 2010. Late applications will not be considered. Scholarship awards recipients will be notified by August 15, 2010.

1. Applicant's contact information:

Name

Address	City	State	Zip

Telephone	Email address

2. Applicant's career path or wildlife rehabilitation intention: _____

3. Applicant's licensed affiliation and licensing agency's contact information:

Name of Licenced Organization	Contact Name	Contact Title

Address	City	State	Zip

Telephone	Email address

4. Why do you believe you need the scholarship? _____

5. Name and contact information of two personal references. At least one of the references should be from the affiliated organization, such as a paid staff member, supervisor or long-time volunteer.

Reference 1:

name _____
address _____
city, state, zip _____
telephone _____
email _____
type of affiliation to applicant _____

Reference 2:

name _____
address _____
city state, zip _____
telephone _____
email _____
type of affiliation to applicant _____

Mail to: CCWR Scholarship Committee, PO Box 434, Santa Rosa, CA 95402